1. Basic Concepts

Company

Russian tour operator Fortuna Travel LLC, operating under the Russvisa brand and promoting its services via the website russvisa.com.

Client

A person who has applied for a service (either for themselves or for the benefit of another person).

Application

An online request for services submitted via the website russvisa.com.

Service

The primary visa support service, which includes:

- Consultation regarding obtaining an invitation;
- Issuance of a tourist invitation (consisting of a tourist confirmation letter and a tourist/travel voucher);
- Delivery of the invitation to the Client's email address.

Additional Services

Supplementary options available upon the Client's request, subject to the Company's ability to provide them:

- Issuance of medical travel insurance;
- Airport-to-hotel transfers;
- Travel itinerary/program planning;
- Hotel reservations and accommodation payment processing;
- Other tourist services requested by the Client.

Invitation

The official visa support document delivered to the Client via email.

Acceptance of Terms

The submission of an Application by the Client constitutes full and unconditional acceptance of this public offer agreement between the Company and the Client.

Completion of Service

The service is considered fully rendered once the invitation has been issued based on the Application details provided on russvisa.com and successfully sent to the email address specified by the Client.

2. Tariff Policy

The Company provides its standard-tariff visa support services to citizens of the following regions:

- European Union (EU) countries;
- United States;

- Canada;
- Australia;
- Japan;
- Select countries of Eastern Europe.

For citizens of the countries listed above, the standard tariff for the visa support service is 9.99 EUR.

If an Application is submitted by a citizen of a country not included in the list above, the Company reserves the right to apply a higher tariff at its sole discretion.

Policy for Changes and Corrections:

In the event that the Client needs to modify the details in the issued invitation for any reason:

- Within 24 hours after the invitation is emailed: All corrections are made free of charge.
- After 24 hours from the dispatch time: Modifications are subject to a 50% discount on the standard service cost, provided the request is made before the original entry date to the Russian Federation.
- After the original entry date: Any changes or re-issuance of the invitation require full payment of the standard tariff.

Cost of Additional Services:

- Medical Insurance: $2 USD per day of stay.
- Travel Itinerary/Program Planning: $20 USD.
- Hotel Reservations: $20 USD.
- VIP Airport Meet-and-Greet: $220 USD.
- Other tourist services: Price available upon request.

3. Discount Policy

Discounts, promotional offers, and price adjustments are provided solely at the discretion of the Company.

4. Refund Policy

All fees paid for the visa support services are final. No refunds are provided once processing has begun or the document has been issued.

5. Company’s Responsibilities

The Company undertakes to accurately prepare the tourist invitation based on the data submitted by the Client in the Application and deliver it promptly to the Client’s email.

The Company undertakes to timely renew its official tour operator license and state accreditation with the competent authorities in strict accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation.

6. Client’s Responsibilities

The Client undertakes to carefully review the received invitation and verify that all information matches their passport data prior to submitting their documents to the Russian Consulate or Visa Application Center.

The Client undertakes to properly fill out their official visa application on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs website (https://visa.kdmid.ru/) in strict accordance with the purpose of travel, dates, itinerary, and host details specified in the issued invitation.

The Company shall not be held liable for visa denials, delays, or any other consequences resulting from discrepancies between the information in the invitation and the Client's official visa application form.

Upon arrival in the Russian Federation, the Client is solely responsible for registering their stay at their place of accommodation within the timeframes established by Russian migration law.

The Client undertakes to exit the territory of the Russian Federation before their visa expires. The Company bears no responsibility for any legal, financial, or administrative consequences resulting from the Client’s violation of stay regulations or overstaying.

7. Miscellaneous Provisions

In all matters not explicitly covered by this agreement, both parties shall be governed by the current legislation of the Russian Federation and applicable rules of international law.
